SCOTTSDALE, July 29.—The 10th anniversary of the Jacobs Creek Methodist Episcopal Church will be observed with a homecoming beginning July 30 and lasting to August 3. Services will be held every evening at 7:30, except Saturday evening owing to the absence of the pastor, Rev. G. S. Baggett, who is in New York the following arrangements have been made.

Wednesday evening—Services will be in charge of Attorney Frank P. Rush. Thursday evening—Speaker will be announced later.

Friday evening—Rev. John T. Stratton of Latrobe will make the address.

Sunday morning, 10 o'clock, Rev. J. B. Ruponi of the West Virginia Conference, a former pastor, will deliver the sermon. At 2 o'clock in the afternoon, Dr. Bennett W. Hutchinson, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Connellsville, will be the principal speaker. This service will be of a historical nature. The concluding service Sunday evening will be in charge of Rev. A. H. Davies, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church at Mount Pleasant. J. L. Kooser will preside at the meetings and take charge of the music.

The figure named by the French, $10,000,000,000 gold francs, covers the remaining cost of restoring the French devastated region. The proposal is certain to raise a storm of protest from the Belgians, Italians, and all smaller nations who have a claim to reparations. The British may object, and even the cost of the United States Army of Occupation, which had a second priority would be prejudiced.

The presence of the French in the Ruhr has been the chief stumbling block to an agreement by the bankers in the proposed terms of an international loan to Germany. Now Herring is moved to offer an equivalent for $6,000,000 gold francs.

JOHN T. SMITH MADE

Pres. Coolidge Has
Acceptance Speech
Well Under Way

By United Press

WASHINGTON, July 29.—President Coolidge today had his acceptance address well blocked out. The notification ceremony, August 14, will launch the campaign. The address, carried by radio to millions the country over, will strike the keynote on which hundreds of campaign speakers will speak during the contest. Mr. Coolidge, it is understood, will make no startling pronouncements but will explain and analyze the Republican program as originally outlined on the platform.

GREAT CRUSH OF BUYERS FOR BARGAIN DAY

Crowds So Great That Some Stores Are Compelled to Close Doors.

RECORD SALES PROBABLE

A tremendous crush of buyers marked the opening of the annual Merchants' Bargain Day in Connellsville today. So great were the crowds that in some of the stores it became necessary, as a safety precaution, to close the doors at intervals.

Streets took on a holiday appearance in the mass of pedestrians but there was no holiday air among them. They were rushing about from place to place bent on getting in the bargains each merchant had to offer.

Unusually attractive offerings were quickly snapped up but there remained the great number of others which kept business going at a record clip, and which probably will during the afternoon and tomorrow. Merchants will have additional goods to offer for Wednesday's selling.

At all the large stores, chiefly the department establishments which do not open until 8:30 o'clock, throngs were gathered outside long before that hour and there was a rush to get in when the doors swung open. Many stores were open at 7:30 o'clock to get the advantages of the early morning shoppers, of which there were many, especially in the men's wearings.

Incoming trolley cars were crowded and hundreds were reported to have come in automobiles. Everything pointed to last year's record of buying being exceeded.

American Airmen
Plan to Resume
Flight Tomorrow

By United Press

BROOKLYN, July 29.—The American airmen will push on, probably Thursday, with their world flight, even if the present inclement weather holds and they are forced to fly dangerously low over the sea on their way to the Orkney Islands, Lieutenant Smith, commanding the expedition, said today.

The airplanes are clean and fresh.

At 10:30 a.m. the airmen were at San Juan when they started from Santa Monica, Calif.

The British experts have been amazed to see the airmen devoting practically all the daylight hours for the past 12 days to personally supervising the refitting and cleaning of their machines. Lieutenant Smith and his comrades are said to be in excellent health and they wanted to make this an event that will be recorded in the history of the church.

WEDS FRIEND'S INVALID WIDOW
TO KEEP TRUST

By United Press

HARRISBURG, July 29.—Harry Wagner, 70, and Mrs. Margaret Madie, 32, were married at the country home here today. Back of this announcement is the story of 26 years of devotion and the fulfillment of a husband's dying request of his trusted friend.

Harry Wagner lived at the Bindle residence here a quarter of a century ago. Bindle had been ill, and the strain left its effect upon him, his wife who today is an invalid at the home.

"Care for her always. Take my picture and care for her as I would. She will be happy in knowing that you will always keep this request."

These were the words imparted to Harry Wagner by his friend, Hirasa Bindle as he breathed his last. And today they were married—al. Mrs. Bindle's request—because she is in failing health and she wanted her husband to know that Harry Wagner had been faithful to his trust.

P. C. W. Almanac Entertains. Approximately two hundred guests attended a dance held last night at the Dubuque City Hotel, for the Alumnae of the Pennsylvania College for Women. Those who came not to dance spent the evening at cards, tables being called into play for the game. Prizes were won by Mrs. John Knapp and James Coates.

Scotia Picnic on Saturday. Representatives from Greenfield and vicinity will be in attendance at the annual outing of the Scottish clan to be held Saturday at Kennywood Park. A program consisting of athletic events, dancing and other amusements has been arranged for the occasion.

Armenians in Reunion. The third annual Armenian family reunion was held Sunday afternoon on Squire Armen's old farm in Franklin township where more than 300 relatives and friends of the family spent the day. The officers were elected Sunday for the next family reunion; C. E. Armen of Vanderbildt was voted to preside, while John Langley of Uniconta was named as vice-president. Alex. Riddell of Uniconta was elected as treasurer and James Langley of Uniconta was placed in the stewardship of the financials. Finance and sports committees were appointed. The finance committee is composed of Alfred O'Neal of Uniconta, John S. Langley of Uniconta and Otto Weiser of Scotland. G. W. Herberg of Vanderbildt, Robert Shuster of New Jersey, John Braden of Greenfield and Jess Armen of Uniconta were named to members of the sports committee. The reunion, it was voted, will be held every year on the same site on the second Tuesday of August.

Licensed at Somerset. Smith W. Wood of Hamblet and Eva Nell, Treasurer of Marlinton; James R. Dugay of Johnstown and Margaret McNamee of Indian Head; Charles French and Violet Dowes, both of Uniconta, were granted marriage licenses at Somerset.

Gibson-Pinkham. Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Carrie Gibson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dixie Gibson of Uniconta, and Varyl Pinkham, policeman Monday, July 29, in Uniconta. Rev. Frank Hollingshead officiated. Mr. and Mrs. Pinkham will reside at Mount Braddock, where the former is employed.

Presbyterians. The Presbyterians won the championship of the Interchurch Horseshoe League last evening when the Christians kept the Methodists from winning more than 14 out of 36 games. The Methodists rose to second place in the league, losing to the Lutherans who were the league leaders until their final clash with the Presbyterians. The Methodists had to win 19 out of the 36 games to get into first place, but fell five games shy of the desired number. C. W. Dowes captained the Presbyterians team throughout the league. The annual corn roast will be held in all probability on Labor Day, with the Lutherans and the Christians footing the bill.

The Mystery "One-Man" of Uniconta, leading horseshoe team in the county, will be scheduled to meet the five of the leading horseshoe tossers from this city. The game will be played at the Armory grounds at 6 o'clock.

Festival Given

For Ball Club

The Capitan Independents and fans shared the victory over Stewart last evening at the festival and dance held at South Connellsville. Close to 1,500 persons spent the evening at the ball field where the New Haven-Hope Company livened things up by rendering a concert. The festival was held in the ball park and Manager William Perry mentioned several cakes for the benefit of the club. At the same time a dance was held at the Capitan Gymnasium, where close to 300 participated.

A special orchestra furnished the dancing music. A pillow game was dropped away. It was won by colored men employed at the Capitan plant.

Immediately after the game, the baseball players of both ball clubs helped themselves to sandwiches, cake, ice cream, coffee and pop. Bill

Perry, manager, said that another similar event would be held the latter part of August.

Manager Perry was the chairman of the committee that was in charge.

He was assisted by Ralph Younkin,

George Sperry, Walter Moorsom and the members of the baseball club.

Tie-Dyeing Made
Fascinating Art

Instinct for Color and Patience Two of Principal Requirements.

The woman who has passed an apprenticeship to ordinary household dyeing need suffer no qualms in directing her attention to the new tie-dyeing. Apart from being a fascinating occupation, says the Manchester Guardian, it is one that presupposes no particular aptitude for either drawing or painting on the part of the amateur; yet if she possesses patience it offers an opportunity of raising her handiwork to the level of a fine art.

It is possible at the outset, to buy from a drug store a reasonable cost bottle containing a complete equipment for this work, "but the novice, for a time at least, can dispense with about half of them."

When choosing materials it is well to note that while all plain light-colored fabrics are possible victims for the dye-pot, until she regards herself as initiated the novice should confine herself to crepe de chine—of course, buying new materials for her experiments, but using old blouses and faded odds and ends. After this, the next step is velvet and chiffon, at the same time she will have sufficiently mastered the art to experiment where she chooses.

Transferring is the initial and, perhaps, the most crucial step, and one, moreover, in which a pencil is never used. If transferring from a rug, tapery, or similar article, place five thicknesses of material under the design to be traced, then place lines tracing paper over the design and fasten it with drawing pins.

MRS. G. G. SHAW.

Mrs. Minnie Shaw, wife of G. G. Shaw, of Clundis, died Monday morning following a lingering illness. Besides her husband she is survived by six children.

The funeral service will be held at the home Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, followed by interment in Pleasant View Cemetery.

MRS. MARSHALL MATHENY.

Mrs. Gertrude Mathey, 21 years old, wife of Marshall Mathey, died Monday, in the Uniontown Hospital following a brief illness. The body was removed to the home of her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Sanford Ryan of Brandonville, W. Va.

RUTH ELLA MURRAY.

Ruth E. Miller of Greenwood officiated at the funeral service for Ruth Ella Murray, 21, Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the family home at Leisering No. 1. Many relatives and friends, including a number from out of town points, were in attendance. Pallbearers were Arthur Veach, Marion and Charles Cilliland. The interment was made in Mount Auburn Cemetery, Dunbar.

THOMAS J. ROBINSON.

Thomas J. Robinson, 42 years old, colored, died this morning in the Passavant Hospital, Pittsburgh, of pneumonia. He had been in Pittsburgh for two months and was admitted to the hospital a week ago. He was a son of Charles and Jane Walls Robinson, both deceased. His wife, who is survived by one sister, Mrs. Martha Nelson and two brothers, George Robinson, both of Connellsville.

The body was brought here this afternoon and removed to the funeral parlor of Charles C. Mitchell. Later it will be taken to the family home on North First street, West Side.

GEORGE MEIER.

George Meier, husband of Anna Speaker Meier, died Sunday at his home in Mount Washington, Pittsburgh. Besides his wife he is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Mary Gaughan and three grandchildren. He was known in Connellsville.

The funeral service will be held tonight at 8 o'clock from the family home.

Defies Age by Using Ordinary Buttermilk to Beautify Complexion

Tell Pretty Girls Druggists Not to Take Anyone's Money Unless This Delightful New Vanishing Cream
Shows a Decided Improvement.

Buttermilk Cream creates beauty almost like magic. The most wonderful thing about it is the fact that whilst it turns the dullest, most lifeless complexion to radiant beauty and makes red or rough hands or arms snowy white, yet there is not the slightest sign of it use after application. It actually vanishes from sight and the most heated atmosphere does not produce the least chafing or greasiness of the skin.

No matter whether you are troubled with poor complexion, wrinkles, puffiness around the eyes, freckles, crooked feet or lines around the mouth, usually finger nails, or just a simple roughness of the face, hands or arms caused by wind or sun, you will find that any or all of these troubles will quickly disappear with the use of Howard's Buttermilk Cream—Advertisement.

Capstan Takes Over Stewart Before Crowd of Rabid Fans Estimated to Number 2,500

Largest Crowd That Ever W^W nominated Game Gathers at Gibson Field.

Although out of sight to seven, the Capstan Independents triumphed the ball effectively and easily defeated the crack Stewart baseball team Monday at Capstan by an 8 to 2 score in one of the most exciting games of the year that was witnessed by close to 2,500 fans, the largest crowd that ever witnessed a game at any time at the South Connellsville grounds. Jeff Moorman looked like a million dollars on the mound and pitched exceptionally well in the pinches. His pitching was worth a thousand victories, but Eddie Dushaw gave the opponents two runs, although he put up a stellar game. Moorman easily out-pitched Galey, the Stewart southpaw, who gave the glass brawlers but seven hits.

The Dusgwills opened up in the initial frame by tallying once. Dushaw was safe when Minix fumbled his grounder and went to second; when the third baseman threw wild it first. Chip Francis sacrificed and Mozman went to third. He easily crossed the plate on Galey's out.

The visitors tied the score in the second inning. Mozman made a good pickup of Hager's grounder, but the third baseman threw wild to first. Chip Francis sacrificed and Mozman went to third. He easily crossed the plate on Galey's out.

Moorman tied the score in the third frame. Mozman made a good pickup of Hager's grounder, but the third baseman threw wild to first. Chip Francis sacrificed and Mozman went to third. He easily crossed the plate on Galey's out.

The visitors tied the score in the fourth frame. Mozman made a good pickup of Hager's grounder, but the third baseman threw wild to first. Chip Francis sacrificed and Mozman went to third. He easily crossed the plate on Galey's out.

Moorman made a weak attempt to tie up the game in the fourth inning when they sent one run across the plate.

Dushaw, "Slow" Hager's second grounder by throwing it high to the crowd. Melago sent him across with his second hit, just the same as they did in the second frame. This put a stop to the visitors' scoring.

In the seventh inning the game broke up. The Dusgwills scored twice. Davis opened with his first triple of the game and scored when Gage Clawson stretched his Texas League hit. Jones was thrown out, but Kelly followed. Moorman hit, and Clawson tallied. Dushaw lined to Cole, while Chip ended the inning by hitting one to Schachte on first base.

The eighth frame netted three runs for the glass blowers. George Clawson was safe when Minix fumbled his grounder and went to third, on Balston's single, the latter going to second on the throw to lead the runner from the plate. Davis sent his second triple to deep center, and Clawson and Balston easily tallied. He scored a moment later when Minix let a throw to nab him on third base go into the woods. Eugene Clawson walked, but Jones hit into a double play.

The Stewart team lost several chances to score but the sensational fielding of the glass blowers proved fatal to the visitors. Cole hit a hot single past Jones and went to second when Mozman was given a free ticket. Schachte popped to George, and Galey opened the seventh by hitting his third single and Schachte followed with a double, but the stout back stop was caught sleeping on third by the hidden ball trick, completely baffling the visitors. Dushaw to Jones.

Minix robbed George Clawson out of a hit in the sixth inning by a spectacular leaping stop, and a lightning run to first base. Chip Francis, veteran of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad for 25 years, turned in the only circus catch of the day. Running back to the woods about 100 feet, Chip snared Galey's high fly, completely leaping over in making the catch. Chip came up smiling, holding the ball in his hand.

Edie Wall, recognized as one of the best umpires in Western Pennsylvania, officiated at the game and his work was splendid. Eddie was the official umpire for the Uniontown-Main and has received numerous offers from various independent teams to umpire for them but decided to stay at home. Besides being a baseball umpire, Wall officiates at any sporting event handed to the athletic world.

The local officials know baseball from "A to Z" and gave a few pointers yesterday. The Capstan fans would like to see Wall officiate at all of their games.

The crowd of 2,500 that witnessed game yesterday, the largest that ever assembled on the South Connellsville grounds for any kind of an event. The mob of fans was kept up an uproar throughout the entire contest. Stewart had a large delegation to root for them.

Pop Francis is back with a lame ankle, as is Hobie Fisher, while Al Ridge, the willie kid, is having some trouble. George played his first game with the glass blowers and yet no signed game.

The game with Dusgwills Independents scheduled for this evening was postponed until Aug. 1. Wednesday, the local outfit will play the crack Trotter team at the South Connellsville grounds.

BOGGS & BUBL BALL TEAM WILL PLAY AT
DICKERSON RUN AUG. 6

The Young Valley baseball fans will get a chance to see a real baseball club in action when the Boggs and Buhl baseball team from Pittsburgh makes its appearance at the Dickerson Run, Y. M. C. A. grounds on Wednesday afternoon, August 6. The fans have been crowding about the kind of baseball teams being played and the management sought to give them some of the highly touted Pittsburgh baseball material. The game was arranged Sunday by the management of the Dusgwills Independents.

Having endeavored to please the fans, the management is hoping that they will strive to help the Young Valley ball club by attending the games and "chipping in on the hat." The game will be called at 5 o'clock. To all give the populace a chance to assemble at the grounds, after they have returned home from work.

This will be the first team at the Dickerson Run grounds from the Pittsburgh district since Frank Tarr managed the Young Valley Independents. A good game is in store for the fans and a big crowd is expected to witness the game.

The Dusgwills officials are planning to travel to the Pittsburgh district and remain there for a week or two, meeting all the strong teams in the Smoky City. Numerous offers have been received from the local officials requesting the tri-town outfit to play there. It is probable that the management will accept, about ten others and leave for Pittsburgh during the middle of August.

President Peter C. Abate of the Vandeventer Athletic Club that is financing the Dusgwills Independents stated that he is not pleased with the crowds turning out to witness the ball games. Mr. Abate stated that if the fans wouldn't support the team at home, he would make a "road club" out of it.

Edie Wall, recognized as one of the best umpires in Western Pennsylvania, officiated at the game and his work was splendid. Eddie was the official umpire for the Uniontown-Main and has received numerous offers from various independent teams to umpire for them but decided to stay at home.

The Dusgwills and Layton

GO 21 INNINGS WITH

NEITHER THE VICTOR

The Dusgwills Independents and Layton staged another sensational contest, but went 21 innings with the two teams battling to a 1 to 1 tie at Layton in an excellent pitcher's duel. Recently the two teams battled to a 12-inning tie, with a 3 to 3 score, at the Dickerson Run grounds.

With Joe Schaeffer on the mount for the locals, the Young Valley combination played sensational until the fifth inning when one hit and a double sent one run across, after they had put themselves into the lead by sending three hits in succession. The tri-towners garnered seven hits off the opposing mudmen, while Schaeffer permitted but two.

An exception to this score line-up was presented by the local outfit. Dan Laramore and Arthur Brown, Bethany Collegeians, played with the local outfit. With the two stars on second and third respectively, John Schaeffer, Dusgwills on first, Newell in left, Brown and Laramore in the other positions, and Steve Schaeffer behind the stick, the strongest lineup avail-

A motor oil that won't break down

HEAT resistance! It is the most important quality a motor oil must have. For heat resistance means body-holding capacity. And upon its "body" depends a motor oil's effectiveness in sealing pistons and keeping the motor full-powered; in preventing scoring or wearing away of cylinder walls; in maintaining a separating film between bearing surfaces.

Put this high-heat-resisting Atlantic Motor Oil in your crank-case. It is the finest protection against the searing heat of furnace-hot cylinders and the trip-hammer blows of flying pistons that you can give your motor.

The extraordinary high-heat-resisting qualities of Atlantic Motor Oil are a recent Atlantic development in motor oil refining.

The Paramount

"YESTERDAY'S WIFE," featuring Irene Rich and Eileen Percy in interesting roles, is on view today at the Paramount as the feature attraction. Miss Rich enacts the role of Megan Day, the young woman who marries Gilbert Ames, played by Mr. Dayton, and who has her love dream shattered by a quarrel and subsequent divorce. Gilbert remarries the second wife being a pretty young telephone operator, played by Miss Percy. Now Megan still loves Gilbert and Gilbert loves Megan, yet the barrier between is Viola, the second wife.

It appears that Viola makes a bad bargain from her own standpoint. She meets an old flame, Joe Coombs, and with him, she finds apparent happiness when out with him on clandestine rides either by boat or in motor. She also carries on a flirtation with Victor Fleming, splendidly played by Mr. McCullough, who is also the thorn in Megan's side.

The plot thickens fast when Viola tricks Megan into meeting Fleming in a lonely roadhouse where Viola expects to drag Megan's honor into the mire and disgrace her so that she need no longer fear her as a rival for her husband's love and attention.

Wednesday and Thursday, "The Spider and the Rose," will be shown.

The Soisson

"DADDIES," which opened yesterday at the Soisson for a three-day attraction, is adapted from David Belasco's stage success and is one of the best screen offerings of the season. Harry Myers and Mae Marsh are seen in the leading roles.

Tears akin to tender laughter; the high, joyous gurgles of mirth; adumbrated; romanesco sweet as dreams come true, and action rapid as a high-speed voltage, belie—that's what adopted kiddies, with their darling tricks and tyrannical love, accomplish in "Daddies," to say nothing of the complete and overwhelming defeat of five hard-boiled bachelors, whose aim in life is to remain single, free, untrammeled and unburdened by the felicities of the married state.

The crochety old, fogey, James Crockett, soured and crabbed by a life of selfish bachelordom, is bitter in his hatred of all the gender, their thongs of life, and has never known the soul-stirring balm of love. But Little Lorry, the French orphan he adopts, with her caressing fingers and adoring love, unseals the long-forgotten springs of emotion in Crockett's unfeeling heart, and leads him straight for the fields of combatual bliss.

To Henry Allen, secure in his woman-free creed, falls the questionable blessing of triplets—three mischievous-faced moppets-faced laddies of unceasing activity and devilish ingenuity. But he, too, falls under their spell, and begins to pour out on them all the love of a starved nature.

Thursday, Friday and Saturday, "How to Educate a Wife," will be shown.

The Orpheum

"ST. ELMO," a screen version of Augusta Evans' widely read novel, is the feature picture today at the Orpheum. John Gilbert, Barbara La Marr and Bebe Love appear in the leading roles.

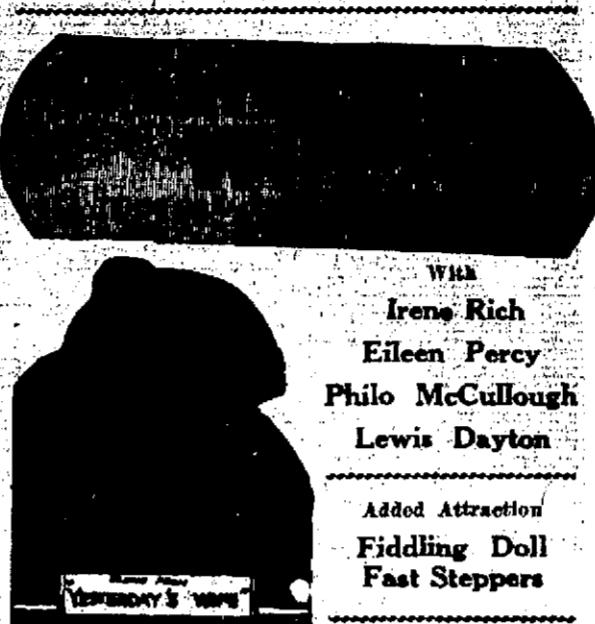

Barbara La Marr plays the part of "Agnes Head," the faithless sweetheart of St. Elmo. Miss La Marr established an unequivocal popularity with her masterful performance in such productions as "Frigid Women," "The Hero," "Prisoner of Zenda," and "Rich Man's Wife."

Bebe Love, the star of a vast array of photoplays, has been cast in the feminine lead and promises one of the best character delineations of her varied career. As "Edna Earle," Miss Love is again the sympathetic, appealing bit of femininity that has been the foundation of her success on the screen and spoken stage.

To Warner Baxter has been assigned the heavy role. Though a newcomer to the silver sheet, Baxter has won considerable praise for his acting in the first few productions in which he has appeared. In "Lonehird, I.D." Baxter attained distinc-

MYSTERY ROAD

By E. PHILLIPS OPPENHEIM

"If you will allow me, I will tell you, not at a time so late as eight," Gerald proposed, "about the girl I met in Monte Carlo. She was a most interesting person. She was in the French quarter of Monte Carlo, I was in the English quarter of Monte Carlo, and we met in the English quarter of Monte Carlo."

"Not so late," she answered. "We were two English women, very good and weary with life."

"I wish," Gerald said deliberately, "that you would tell me more about yourselves."

Pauline glanced across at her aunt, who was leaning back in her chair, also with the appearance of deep content; her eyes closed, her air of relaxation complete.

"My aunt does not approve of such questions," she said quietly.

"We speak in English," Gerald reminded her, "and your aunt does not understand."

"My aunt understands English better than you would believe," Pauline replied. "There is the fact, also, that I have confidence in her. I believe that she knows what is best."

"The best thing for you," Gerald said firmly, "is to believe in me."

She looked at him with a slight smile. Her face, however, remained unsmiling.

"Really? And why should I believe in you? And what is there to believe?"

"That I am deeply interested," Gerald replied promptly, "in everything that concerns you; that I wish to be your friend; that I wish—

She stopped him with a little gesture lastingly unsmiling.

"Neither my aunt nor I," she interrupted, "are in a position to accept more than the simplest acts of good will from any one. I have tried to make that clear to you."

"You have," Gerald admitted, "but before I accept your decision finally, I shall expect some further explanation."

"We do not belong to your world," Pauline said. "We are what you call, I think, foreigners."

"Of a unique type, then," Gerald declared, smiling. "It is not the usual action of such people, having met with a great loss, as you did at Monte Carlo, to sell their jewelry to pay their bills, and leave without owing a penny."

"You are well informed," Pauline remarked quietly.

"I saw your jewels in London," she replied, "and I have been talking with the manager."

"Perhaps you can another world," Christopher explained, "but not the world of Monte Carlo. Look at him now."

"I am not fond of money," Gerald declared, "but I am fond of women."

"I am fond of women," Pauline repeated immediately.

"I cannot believe that," Christopher said, "in appearance, you have another world."

"I cannot believe that," Gerald replied, "but before I accept your decision finally, I shall expect some further explanation."

While he was for a time in a serious way he later recovered sufficiently to return home

Do Feet Perspire?

How to Stop the Ill Smell at Once
With Newest remedy.

To keep the feet free from bad odors and stop the constant sweating, wash the feet in cold water and then apply Kojene, the powerful antiseptic, which can now be found in thousands of homes in this vicinity.

Use one part Kojene and one part water—not much is required—a quarter of a cupful is plenty.

Just rub this on the offending feet and let it dry without a towel which it will do quickly.

The ill smell goes at once and after a few days the sweating will cease and the distressing trouble will be a thing of the past. Not only that, but Kojene helps to take the tenderness out of feet that are sore and bare.

Union Drug Company sells large quantities of Kojene for 9¢ cans a bottle—so do good druggists everywhere and if it doesn't satisfy—why money back.—Advertisement.
